

2017 - Residential Substance Abuse Treatment for State Prisoners Special Conditions

1. The grantee agrees that grant funds may be used to pay for data collection, analysis, and report preparation only if that activity is associated with federal reporting requirements. Other data collection, analysis, and evaluation activities are not allowable uses of grant funds.
2. The grantee agrees to implement or continue to require urinalysis or other proven reliable forms of testing of individuals in correctional residential substance abuse treatment programs. Such testing shall include individuals released from residential substance abuse treatment programs who remain in the custody of the State.
3. Program income (as defined in the Part 200 Uniform Requirements) must be used in accordance with the provisions of the Part 200 Uniform Requirements. Program income earnings and expenditures both must be reported on the quarterly Program Income (DCJ Form 1-B).
4. The grantee agrees to submit to DCJ for review and approval any curricula, training materials, proposed publications, reports, or any other written materials that will be published, including web-based materials and web site content, through funds from this grant at least thirty (30) working days prior to the targeted dissemination date. Any written, visual, or audio publications, with the exception of press releases, whether published at the grantee's or government's expense, shall contain the following statements: "This project was supported by Grant No. 2017-RT-BX-0014 awarded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance. The Bureau of Justice Assistance is a component of the Department of Justice's Office of Justice Programs, which also includes the Bureau of Justice Statistics, the National Institute of Justice, the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, the Office for Victims of Crime, and the SMART Office. Points of view or opinions in this document are those of the author and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice." The current edition of the DOJ Grants Financial Guide provides guidance on allowable printing and publication activities.
5. Approval of this award does not indicate approval of any consultant rate in excess of $650 per day. A detailed justification must be submitted to and approved DCJ prior to obligation or expenditure of such funds.
6. Grantee understands and agrees that, to the extent that substance abuse treatment and related services are funded by this award, they will include needed treatment and services to address opioid abuse reduction.
7. The grantee agrees to comply with OJP and DCJ grant monitoring guidelines, protocols, and procedures, and to cooperate with OJP (including the grant manager for this award and the Office of Chief Financial Officer (OCFO)) and/or DCJ on all grant monitoring requests, including requests related to desk reviews, enhanced programmatic desk reviews, and/or site visits. The grantee agrees to provide to OJP and/or DCJ all documentation necessary to complete monitoring tasks, including documentation related to any subawards made under this award. Further, the grantee agrees to abide by reasonable deadlines set by OJP and/or DCJ for providing the requested documents. Failure to cooperate with OJP's and DCJ's grant monitoring activities may result in sanctions affecting the grantee's DOJ awards, including, but not limited to: withholdings and/or other restrictions on the grantee's access to grant funds; referral to the Office of the Inspector General for audit review; designation of the grantee as a High Risk grantee; or termination of an award(s).

8. The Residential Substance Abuse Treatment (RSAT) Formula Grant Program provides funds to the states, territories, and the District of Columbia for use by the state and units of local government in developing and implementing residential substance abuse treatment programs within correctional and detention facilities in which prisoners are incarcerated for a period of time sufficient to permit substance abuse treatment.

None of the following activities will be conducted whether under the Office of Justice Programs federal action or a related third party action:

- a. New construction.
- b. Any renovation or remodeling of a property located in an environmentally or historically sensitive area, including property (a) listed on or eligible for listing on the National Register of Historic Places, or (b) located within a 100-year flood plain, a wetland, or habitat for an endangered species.
- c. A renovation that will change the basic prior use of a facility or significantly change its size.
- d. Research and technology whose anticipated and future application could be expected to have an effect on the environment.
- e. Implementation of a program involving the use of chemicals.

Additionally, the proposed action is neither a phase nor a segment of a project that when reviewed in its entirety would not meet the criteria for a categorical exclusion.

Consequently, the subject federal action meets the Office of Justice Programs' criteria for a categorical exclusion as contained in paragraph 4(b) of Appendix D to Part 61 of Title 28 of the Code of Federal
