E-UPDATE FROM CSSRC ~ You are receiving this email as a subscriber of the Colorado School Safety Resource Center’s (CSSRC) listserv. E-Updates from the CSSRC will contain the most current information about the Center’s activities and resources, as well as other school safety efforts throughout the state of Colorado and relevant national resources. Please forward this to others on your email list that have an interest in supporting safe and positive schools in Colorado. They may register for this listserv on our website www.Colorado.gov/SchoolSafetyResourceCenter or www.Colorado.gov/CSSRC.

THE DIRECTOR’S CORNER

Protecting Students: Although the Federal government recently rescinded its protections afforded to transgender students when selecting a restroom or locker room, Colorado state law still forbids discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation and gender identity in public places — including schools. Colorado Chalkbeat published an informative article about this last week.

Supporting Staff: As many of you are aware, our school communities have suffered what appears to be an increased number of suicides this year. We all realize the tremendous heartache these deaths cause not only for the family of those lost, but the entire school community. School staff care deeply for the students with whom they work and suffer greatly when anyone in the community dies. My friend and colleague, Nate Thompson, recently shared this article from Education Week with me and other mental health colleagues across the state. I hope you find it helpful too.

New Resources: The Center just released a new resource Restorative Practices in Schools. This guide will alert readers to a number of non-profit agencies and consultants that work with schools to help create restorative cultures. As the first edition, we welcome feedback and particularly information on services to include in future guides. Please note that the most recent version will always appear on our website at this link.

Also, the Center hosted a focus group of district technology professionals to gauge the need for resources for all schools around cybersecurity. We appreciate all those that attended and shared their expertise. The outcome was to recommend that all districts participate in CALET (Colorado Association of Leaders in Educational Technology) one of the CASE networking groups. Also, the meeting provided a long list of resources for cybersecurity for all districts. Please access the notes here for a list of the participants in the meeting and their issues and recommendations. They are all willing to assist ANY schools in Colorado!

Brad Stiles, our Emergency Response Outreach Consultant, has a brief webcast with pointers on school safety. We invite you to check it out!

We are pleased to now be hosting a Colorado and National School Safety Training Calendar on our website. If you have information on upcoming school safety trainings that your district or agency are hosting that are open to the public, please contact the Center so that we can add them to the calendar.

Finally, please see page 3 below for three 2017 Rural Safe Schools Summits for staff and students coming this spring.

Kindest regards,

Chris Harms
Youth Engaged in School Safety (YES²)

This month’s safety thoughts are from Faith Alidou, 9th Grader at Vista Peak Preparatory:
“A few months ago we were asked to create a message that we could deliver to middle schoolers about topics in and outside of school. I decided to go with being yourself and how if we’re trying to be someone else we’re just putting on a mask and covering up our true identity. I believe that if we could all just be allies and promote our true identities, then middle schoolers wouldn’t be afraid to be themselves around others; and trust me I would know because I was one of them not too long ago. “

COLORADO SCHOOL SAFETY RESOURCE CENTER TRAININGS

Restorative Practices in Schools

- The highly acclaimed two-day Restorative Practices in Schools workshops conducted by Kerri Schmitt with a grant from the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Council will be repeated this semester. Previously held in Keystone, Highlands Ranch, Grand Junction and Pueblo, the two-day workshop will be repeated once more on the Front Range.
- When: Tuesday, March 14th and Wednesday, March 15th
- Where: Adams 12 Five Star Conference Center, 1500 E. 128th Avenue, Thornton, CO
- Cost: No cost. This workshop is supported by a grant from the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Council through the CDPS Division of Criminal Justice.
- Lunch: On your own but feel free to bring your lunch.
- What will be discussed? (Please Note: We are reversing the order of the two days from the previous trainings, in case you’ve already attended and are sending colleagues.)
  - Day 1 - Designed for all school staff: This is an opportunity for school staff to understand the value of implementing restorative classrooms and the components and skills necessary to create such classrooms as well as broadening the base of supporters for a school-wide initiative.
  - Day 2 - Designed for administrators: Examples of the effectiveness of restorative practices in schools and a step by step process for implementing restorative practices and creating a restorative culture in your school. Topics will include how to gain commitment from staff, data tracking, training, aligning your RTI/PBIS program and other school polices with restorative practices and restorative dialogue skills

See flyer for more information and to register for the workshop here!

UPDATED Save the Dates:

- The CSSRC is pleased to announce three separate 2017 Rural Safe Schools Summits for staff and students. These are made possible by a grant from the Gay and Lesbian Fund for Colorado. The final details are being confirmed but if you are in these regions, please save the following dates:
  - Durango – Tuesday, April 25, 2017
  - Grand Junction – Thursday, April 27, 2017
  - La Junta – Thursday, May 11, 2017
We are in the process of securing a national keynote presenter and the list of workshops can be seen on this flyer. More information to follow on the front page of our website.

- Second Annual IHE Summer Safety Symposium will be held on Thursday, June 8th on the campus of Regis University. Last year’s Symposium was a huge success and we would like to build on that momentum. In this year’s Symposium, several engaging speakers will present on Collaboration during Active Shooter Incidents, Behavioral Intervention Teams, Radicalization on Campus and one campus’ response to an individual who would become a notorious criminal. Additional speakers are being scheduled now and a complete agenda will be released soon!

- The School Safety Resource Center team will collaborate once again on September 28, 2017 to present a day of training on child sexual abuse prevention. This annual symposium assists school professionals, communities and law enforcement in identifying, preventing, responding to and reporting child sexual abuse. Expert presenters will train on trauma-informed practices, current research and trends, and pertinent legislation. Join us for this important and supportive event at the Adams 12 Five Star Schools Conference Center! Open to the public. Watch for registration information on future E-Updates.

- We are busy making plans with CSPV and S2T for the 2017 Colorado Safe Schools Summit. This year it will be held on October 18th and 19th at the Adams 12 Five Star Schools Conference Center. We have already lined up some of our plenary speakers and the call for workshop proposals will be released in April. Stay tuned!
CURRENT EVENTS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Safe2Tell Materials Coming to ALL Schools

- “The success of the Safe2Tell Colorado model critically depends on the amount of awareness and education students, parents and community members have about the Safe2Tell Colorado resource available to them. In order to increase awareness of the Safe2Tell Colorado program, the Colorado General Assembly responded by generously passing Senate Bill 16-193 last legislative session.
- Senate Bill 16-193 provides you with FREE Safe2Tell Colorado marketing and promotional materials to increase the awareness of the Safe2Tell reporting resource.”
- Materials are being sent to all schools within the next few weeks.
- Check this link for more information.

ADL’s 2017 Student Essay Contest

- The Anti-Defamation League’s 2017 student essay contest A Tribute to Moral Courage: Standing Up Against Injustice is back for another powerful year, thanks to the generosity of an anonymous donor! We are ready for your submissions!
• Please engage any 7-12th grade student in Colorado or Wyoming in this great opportunity to research those ordinary individuals who acted extraordinarily in difficult and challenging times!

• Click the following for full essay contest details, rules & guidelines.

• For general information about the essay contest, including last year’s winners, click this link: ADL Student Essay Contest: A Tribute to Moral Courage: Standing Up Against Injustice

• This essay contest uses the Holocaust as a backdrop, middle and high school students are encouraged to recognize those individuals throughout history who took a strong stand on a specific issue based on their personal beliefs or convictions, regardless of the danger or threat to their personal safety. Not only will students write about how that person’s moral courage has an impact on the world, but also and perhaps most importantly, how those actions have influenced their own lives today.

• Essay submissions must be from Colorado and Wyoming students in grades 7-12. Monetary awards will be granted to the top three winners in two divisions:
  o Division 1 - students in grades 7-9; and o Division 2 - students in grades 10-12.

• The deadline to submit essays is March 10, 2017.

• The winning student essay authors will receive their awards at ADL’s 36th Annual Governor’s Holocaust Remembrance Program in Denver on April 25, 2017.

• NOTE to TEACHERS: If used as a classroom assignment, this essay contest meets several Colorado and Wyoming State Standards in Reading, Writing and Social Studies:
  o RH 11-12.7, requiring students to integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media in order to address a question or solve a problem.
  o RH 9-10.9, requiring students to compare and contrast treatments of the same topic in several primary and secondary sources.
  o RH 6-8.10, requiring students to be able to read and comprehend history/social studies texts, independently and proficiently.
  o W.7, Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects based on focused questions, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.

• If you have any questions, please feel free to call or email. Tara Raju, MSW, ADL Education Director, Main: 303-830-7177, Direct: 720-799-9676, E: traju@adl.org

Teens Called Upon to Tackle Opioid Crisis through Video Competition

• The United States Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), DEA Educational Foundation and Discovery Education, the leading provider of digital content and professional development for K-12 classrooms, are launching the Operation Prevention Video Challenge that gives students the power to send a message to their peers about the dangers of opioid misuse.

• The Operation Prevention Video Challenge invites teens across the country to create a unique 30-60 second public service announcement, aimed to reach other teens about this widespread issue. The question: “If your friends were going to watch ONE video that made them think twice about misusing prescription opioids, what would that video be?”

• A panel of judges from Discovery Education and the DEA, as well as community leaders, educators, and communications experts, will select the winners for three DEA Educational Foundation scholarships. The grand prize winner will receive $10,000, the second place winner will receive $5,000, and the third place winner will receive $1,000.

• One People’s Choice winner will also be selected through public vote in April 2017 and will win a trip provided by the DEA for an exclusive behind-the-scenes tour of DEA agent training at the DEA’s Training Academy in Quantico, Virginia. Winning PSAs will also be featured on-air and across DEA’s digital and social media platforms.
• Students must be at least 13-years-old and enrolled in 9th through 12th grade. Video entries will be evaluated based on their creativity, content, persuasiveness and overall effective communication. No violent, dangerous, or illegal behavior in creating the Entry Video is allowed. Teens can register and submit their entries today through March 28, 2017 at https://www.operationprevention.com/video-challenge.

NEW The Anti-Defamation League (ADL) Professional Development Conversations
• The ADL has created resources for students, educators and families that deal with current issues.
• “Preparing students to live and work successfully in a pluralistic nation and a global community requires opportunities for them to engage in curricular content that furthers the ideals of justice and equality upon which the nation was founded. Anti-bias curriculum provides an understanding of diverse perspectives, strengthens critical thinking skills, challenges the development of emerging biases, and builds skills and motivation to take action against injustice.”
• Resources like When Do Teachers Stay Neutral?; The ‘Muslim Ban’ and the Power of Protest; What is the ‘Muslim Ban?’ and more through their website.
• The ADL also has Current Events Classroom lessons such as Sanctuary Cities and Non-Violent Resistance.

NIJ Solicitation: Comprehensive School Safety Initiative (CSSI) Grant

• The National Institute of Justice is soliciting applications for CSSI funding in five categories.
• The first three are focusing on knowledge about what works to make schools safe using a tiered evidence approach. Increasing amounts of funding are awarded to programs of research according to their level of evidence effectiveness.
• The three categories focused on developing knowledge through this tiered evidence approach are:
  o Developing Novel and Innovative School Safety Programs, Practices & Strategies
  o Demonstration, Evaluation and Validation Tests for School Safety
  o Expanding the use of Effective Interventions through Scaling-up
• This solicitation will also include funding categories to support research on causes and consequences of school safety issues as well as assessments of school safety issues in tribal communities.
• Applications should feature close coordination involving state education agencies (SEAs) or local education agencies (LEAs) (including public charter schools that are recognized as LEAs) and a researcher or research organization that has considerable experience conducting research and evaluation, preferably, in school settings.
• NIJ recommends that the research organization serve as the applicant and make one or more sub-awards to participating SEAs or LEAs.

Marijuana Bill Tracker

• The Violence and Injury Prevention – Mental Health Promotion Branch of the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment (CDPHE) sets up legislative trackers to monitor bills that relate to certain topics of interest.
• Here is the marijuana-related bill tracker that they set up.
• As it says in the header, inclusion on the tracker does not indicate an opinion or stance on the bill by CDPHE - just monitoring.

GLSEN Report Finds Hostile Environment for LGBTQ Youth in Colorado Schools

• “A national school climate survey shows that despite some progress, Colorado high schools remain ‘hostile environments’ for the many gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and queer youth who continue to hear biased language and experience harassment, discrimination and assault.
• The report released on January 11, 2017 by GLSEN — the Gay, Lesbian and Straight Education Network — includes the results of a 2015 school survey of more than 10,000 LGBTQ youth from all 50 states.
• The survey shows that rates of harassment and assault have decreased, and that schools nationwide have increased various support systems for queer and transgender youth.
• Still, the report says, “overall rates of homophobic and transphobic harassment are still higher than anyone should be willing to accept.”

FEMA Region VIII Law Enforcement Liaison

NEW National Center for Campus Public Safety – Public Order Events
- In conjunction with the International Association of Campus Law Enforcement Administrators (IACLEA), a report was created regarding focus groups that were conducted to identify promising practices to assist campus public safety agencies in preparing for and effectively managing student protests and other public order events.
- Originally, the report was created in December of 2012 out of incidents of civil unrest on college campuses. Due to recent events, they have decided to revisit the report titled Maintaining Safety and Order on College and University Campuses During Protests and Demonstrations: Promising Practices.
- Additional resources providing additional information related to public order events are:

Second Report of the White House Task Force to Protect Students from Sexual Assault

- The National Center for Campus Public Safety's provided this description:
- The new report reviews the impact the WHTF and its efforts have had on institutions of higher education (IHEs) at all levels: research, development, planning, and implementation.
- The report also notes the important role the Department of Education's (ED) Office for Civil Rights has played in addressing sexual assault on campuses, negotiating "robust agreements with dozens of postsecondary institutions and school districts to resolve investigations related to sexual violence" and continuing to investigate more than 400 complaints across the United States.
- Access the full report here.
