Thursday, May 1, 2014, 8:00-3:30 Colorado Springs
DoubleTree Hotel, 1775 East Cheyenne Mountain Boulevard

Pre-registration is required (see below). Check-in for those already registered begins at 7:30am. No cost to Colorado participants.

Many Colorado schools have already been successfully using alternatives to suspension. With the passage of SB12-046 within HB12-1345, schools now have the ability to use even more discretion when dealing with disciplinary issues.

Join us as we review your responsibilities under the 2012 law, help you use your data to design strategies and share successful interventions for positive school discipline. All morning sessions will be LiveStreamed. More information will be available at www.Colorado.gov/CSSRC.

Agenda:

- Overview of Guiding Legislation
- Discipline, Data and Disproportionality
- Data Analysis to Drive Decisions
- Lunch on your own
- Afternoon Workshops:
 - Strategies to Address Disproportionality*
 - Restorative Practices*
 - The Role of Law Enforcement Officers*
 - Creative Discipline and Alternatives to Suspension*

It is suggested that you attend with your entire disciplinary team administrators, school mental health professionals, special education personnel and law enforcement professionals so that you can take optimal advantage of the work times built in to the day.

Continue to check the CSSRC website for more information as it becomes available.
