FACT SHEET: Colorado 911 Good Samaritan Law

Immunity for persons who suffer or report an emergency drug or alcohol overdose event.

(Colorado Revised Statutes: §18-1-711)

An "emergency drug or alcohol overdose event" is an acute condition including, but not limited to, physical illness, coma, mania, hysteria, or death resulting from the consumption or use of a controlled substance, or of alcohol, or another substance with which a controlled substance or alcohol was combined, and that a layperson would reasonably believe to be a drug or alcohol overdose that requires medical assistance.

WHO QUALIFIES FOR IMMUNITY

The immunity from arrest extends to the individual reporting AND the person who suffered the event...

...if all of the following "CONDITIONS FOR IMMUNITY" are satisfied.

CONDITIONS FOR IMMUNITY

A person is immune from arrest and prosecution for an offense if:

- The person reports in good faith...
...to an emergency drug or alcohol overdose event to a law enforcement officer, to the 911 system, or to a medical provider;
- The person remains: a) at the scene of the event, or... b) at the medical facility...
...until a law enforcement officer or an emergency medical responder arrives, ...until a law enforcement officer arrives;
- The person identifies himself or herself to, and cooperates with, the law enforcement officer, emergency medical responder, or medical provider; AND
- The related offense occurs during the same emergency drug or alcohol overdose event...

...AND a person is immune only for "SPECIFIC OFFENSES."
