EIGHT GUIDING PRINCIPLES FOR RISK/RECIDIVISM REDUCTION

Source: National Institute of Corrections

Statutory Duties

- The Commission will conduct an empirical analysis of and collect evidence-based data on sentencing policies and practices, including but not limited to the effectiveness of the sentences imposed in meeting the purposes of sentencing and the need to prevent recidivism and re-victimization.

(C.R.S. 16-11.3-103.2a)

Statutory Duties

- The Commission will investigate effective alternatives to incarceration, the factors contributing to recidivism, evidence-based recidivism reduction initiatives, and cost-effective crime prevention programs.

(C.R.S. 16-11.3-103.2b)

Statutory Duties

- The Commission will make an annual report of findings and recommendations, including evidence-based analysis and data.
- The Commission will study and evaluate the outcomes of Commission recommendations as implemented.

(C.R.S. 16-11.3-103.2c,d)

Statutory Duties

- The Commission will conduct and review studies (including work done in other states) and make recommendations concerning policies and practices in the criminal and juvenile justice systems. The areas of study shall include, but are not limited to, the reduction of racial and ethnic disparities within the criminal and juvenile justice systems. Areas of study will be prioritized based on the potential impact on crime, corrections and the resources available for conducting the work.

(C.R.S. 16-11.3-103.2e)

Statutory Duties

- The Commission, using empirical analysis and evidence-based data and research, will consider the development of a comprehensive drug sentencing scheme for all drug crimes described in article 18 of title 18, C.R.S.

(C.R.S. 16-11.3-103- 2.7a; Repealed July 1, 2013.)

Statutory Duties

- The Commission will work with other state-established boards, task forces, or commissions that study or address criminal justice issues.
- The Commission, at its discretion, may respond to inquiries referred by members of the General Assembly, the Governor, and the Chief Justice of the Colorado Supreme Court, as resources allow.

(C.R.S. 16-11.3-103.2e & 4)

Membership

- The Commission is comprised of 29 members and one Ex-officio member.
- Sixteen members are designated appointments based upon their position (no service terms).
- Fourteen members are appointed by the Governor to represent a broad spectrum of disciplines and constituencies. (These members serve no more than two, three-year terms.)

(C.R.S. 16-11.3-102.2 & 3)

Membership

- Only members of the Commission are permitted to participate in the Commission's formal decision making (voting) process.*
(The Director of the Division of Criminal Justice is the only non-voting member of the Commission).

*Members may designate a substitute who may participate in Commission discussions, but this individual is not granted voting privileges.
