

TEAMWORK

The division is comprised of six offices, all supported by the Office of Administrative Services, working diligently to improve the administration of justice. These offices work with our partners across the state.

OFFICE OF ADULT AND JUVENILE JUSTICE ASSISTANCE

OAJJA administers seven federal and two state criminal and juvenile justice funding programs. Additionally, OAJJA supports the Justice Assistance Grant Board and the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Council. Staff from OAJJA are actively involved in policy initiatives intended to improve the criminal and juvenile justice systems.

OFFICE OF COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS

Colorado community corrections provides a sentencing or placement alternative to incarceration and an opportunity for incarcerated felons to transition back into the community by providing individualized services and support. The OCC funds, regulates, collects statistical data and provides technical assistance, including assisting providers and boards with the implementation of the Colorado Community Corrections Standards.

OFFICE OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND SEX OFFENDER MANAGEMENT

ODVSOM sets and reviews standards of practice for the court-ordered treatment for individuals charged with domestic violence or sex offenses. The standards are designed to enhance victim and community safety, promote offender accountability, and provide an opportunity for individuals to eliminate violent and assaultive behavior.

OFFICE OF VICTIMS PROGRAMS

OVP houses a number of programs to support victims of crime. The programs include grant funding for victim service agencies, support for local victim compensation and Victim Assistance and Law Enforcement programs, victim rights compliance, supporting statewide human trafficking efforts, and supporting statewide responses to sexual assault.

OFFICE OF RESEARCH AND STATISTICS

ORS analyzes justice policies and problems, evaluates criminal justice programs, conducts recidivism studies, provides research support to the Colorado Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice, and distributes information. ORS undertakes this work to assist the General Assembly, the Governor's Office, state and local agencies, and the public for the purpose of enhancing the administration of justice.
