

Proposed Schedule for Comprehensive Review of Rules
July 31, 2019
Subject to Change

Below is a list of rules that the Department of Public Safety expects to review in their entirety in the coming calendar year in accordance with 24-4-103.3, C.R.S. As the rules are being reviewed, the following are considered:

- Whether the rule is necessary
- Whether the rule overlaps or duplicates other rules of the agency or with other federal, state, or local government rules
- Whether the rule is written in plain language and is easy to understand
- Whether the rule has achieved the desired intent and whether more or less regulation is necessary
- Whether the rule can be amended to give more flexibility, reduce regulatory burden, or reduce unnecessary paperwork or steps while maintaining its benefits
- Whether a cost-benefit analysis was performed by the applicable rulemaking agency or official in the principal department pursuant to section 24-4-103(2.5), C.R.S.
- Whether the rule is adequate for the protection of the safety, health, and welfare of the state and its residents
