

VOCA 2008 Assistance Funding

| Agency Name | Recommended Funding | Description |
|--|---------------------|--|
| Colorado Department of Public Safety | $80,309 | The Victim Rights Act Compliance Program, which is statutorily mandated by Colorado law, works with victims of crime who feel their rights, under the statute, have been violated. Complaints filed by victims against agencies that are responsible for ensuring victims their rights are reviewed and resolved through either a formal or informal process. |
| Colorado Organization for Victim Assistance | $56,729 | Colorado Organization for Victim Assistance will provide direct services to crime victims by placing minority student interns in victim services agencies, thereby increasing direct services and encouraging minority victims to use existing assistance systems; and emergency funds for crime victims needs that cannot be met through victim compensation or any other resource. |
| Colorado State Patrol | $152,248 | The Colorado State Patrol Victim Advocates provide comprehensive services to victims of traffic crashes and their families. Each CSP District employs an advocate to serve the various judicial districts within their areas. These positions also require extensive knowledge of the Victims' Rights Amendment and they ensure that CSP policies, rules and regulations are met in traffic cases. |
| State Court Administrators Office | $154,757 | The State Court Administrators Office will provide victims, whose offender has been granted probation supervision by the courts, notification of their rights and offer an opportunity to sign up and receive subsequent notification and information regarding the status of the offender's probation sentence. |
| Families of Homicide Victims & Missing Persons | $8,456 | Families of Homicide Victims and Missing Persons will provide victims of unsolved murders or long-time missing persons with direct services in the form of information and emotional support. They will outreach to that population by raising awareness of the resources they offer through their annual meeting. |
| Outward Bound West | $18,944 | Outward Bound West conducts 3-day therapeutic wilderness courses for survivors of rape, incest and domestic violence. These programs are designed to help individuals address issues of trust, support and connection with others. work together to overcome obstacles, conquer fears and gain support from victims/survivors of violence. |
| Family Tree | $61,547 | Family Tree's Women in Crisis Program provides shelter, counseling, safety planing, and interagency coordinaton for child victims of domestic violence and their mothers. The Outreach Programs provide education and support for victims of domestic violence in Conifer and at the Family Tree Karlis Family Center in Lakewood. |
| Gilpin County Combined Victim Services | $35,000 | Gilpin County Combined Victim Services will provide a victim advocate who is responsible for direct crisis intervention services to those victimized by crime in Black Hawk, Central City and throughout Gilpin County. This position is a direct response to the Victim Rights Amendment mandates and provides victim services in a law enforcement based program. |
| Jefferson County Children's Advocacy Center | $73,813 | The Victim Assistance Program victim advocates is a team of staff and volunteers that assists in providing initial and ongoing support, and assistance with Crime Victim Compensation to child victims of abuse during the investigation and criminal justice system process. |
| Jefferson County, Sheriff's Department | $36,000 | The Jefferson County Sheriff's Office provides on-scene support and followup services to crime victims in unincorporated Jefferson County through the services of a Victim Advocate. |
| Victim Outreach Information, Inc. | $57,486 | Victim Outreach Information's Volunteer Coordinator/Crime Victim Advocate will recruit, screen, train, supervise volunteer victim advocates who respond to calls by law enforcement from Wheat Ridge, Golden, Mountain View, Edgewater and the School of Mines. VOI advocates are available 24-hours on-scene or by hotline to offer comprehensive crime victim services, including but not limited to crisis intervention, emotional support, information about and advocacy for resources, crime victim compensation and victim's rights. |
| WINGS Foundation, Inc. | $45,189 | WINGS Services for Survivors Program provides information and referral services, therapist-facilitated support groups, educational presentations, advocacy and other forms of support to adult survivors of childhood sexual abuse. |
| Arvada Child Advocacy Center | $31,602 | The Arvada Child Advocacy Center (ACAC) provides crisis intervention, services and support for sexually abused children and their families who are brought to the Center for an investigative interview or forensic medical exam. A Victim/Family Support Advocate will personally provide victim support and advocacy throughout the investigation and prosecution process, including counseling, ongoing communication between families and professionals, and education about victim rights, victim compensation and the criminal justice process to help reduce the retraumatization and start the healing of children and families. |

VOCA 2008 Assistance Funding

| Agency Name | Recommended Funding | Description |
|--|---------------------|--|
| AMEND | $68,211 | AMEND's Advocacy Services Program provides advocacy and direct support services to victims of domestic violence (including children who witness) whose perpetrators attend AMEND's counseling programs in the 1st, 2nd, 17th and 18th Judicial Districts. |
| Asian Pacific Development Center | $75,447 | Asian Pacific Development Center is designed to provide culturally competent and linguistically appropriate services for AAPI victims of crime. A majority of service recipients are either AAPI immigrants, refugees, or sojourners with limited/no English skills. Others include various generations of AAPI born in the U.S. as well as bi-or multi-racial AAPI. |
| Colorado Legal Services | $62,380 | Colorado Legal Services provides legal representation to victims of domestic violence and elder abuse at permanent protective order hearings in Jefferson County and the 4th, 6th, 10th, 16th, 19th, and 22nd Judicial Districts. |
| Colorado Nonprofit Development Center | $37,641 | The Colorado Anti-Violence Program (CAVP) provides emergency victim services to lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning (LGBTQ) victims of hate, sexual, HIV-motivated, and random violence via its 24-hour statewide toll-free crisis line, as well as extended client services such as advocacy and case management. CAVP provides professional training, technical assistance, and case consultation for the criminal justice system and service providers. |
| Denver CASA | $16,558 | Denver CASA is the not-for-profit Court Appointed Special Advocate program that provides trained, caring volunteer advocates for child victims of physical and sexual abuse and neglect in the City and County of Denver. |
| Denver Children's Advocacy Center | $65,229 | The Denver Children's Advocacy Center provides assessment and treatment services, and a court school program for child victims of sexual assault and children who have witnessed homicide, violent crime, and extreme domestic violence. The Child and Adolescent Assessment and Treatment Program which assesses and treats child victims and offers counseling to non-offending parents and family members to optimize the treatment outcomes for children. DCAC provides services to monolingual Spanish-speaking children who are victims of crime, and their non-offending family members; including very young children (aged 2-6). |
| Denver Center for Crime Victims, The | $180,175 | The Denver Center for Crime Victims operates a 24-hour Hotline for crime victims, available in English, Spanish and by Teletypewriter (TTY) for hearing-and speech-impaired individuals. DCCV also offers specialized programs for crime victims who are elderly or have a disability, child victims and their families and monolingual Spanish-speaking victims. Additionally, the Center provides crisis counseling, advocacy, case management, support groups for adults and child witnesses, emergency financial assistance, legal immigration and translation/interpreting services for non-English speaking domestic violence victims. |
| District Attorney's Office, 2nd Jud. Dist. | $50,790 | The Denver District Attorney's Family Violence Victim Advocate provides services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault on children cases filed in the Denver District Court. The advocate is the liaison between the victims and witnesses and the criminal justice system, and provides Victims' Rights support, information and referral to community services, updates on the status of the prosecution, and support throughout the court process. |
| Domestic Violence Initiative | $32,440 | Domestic Violence Initiative for Women with Disabilities (DVI) provides comprehensive services to women with disabilities (throughout the state of Colorado) who have been victims. DVI also provides outreach concerning specialized victims issues as they relate to disability, disability rights, confidentiality and the Adults at Risk Statute. |
| Dove: Advocacy Services | $20,383 | DOVE-Community Advocacy program provides fundamental direct services for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing victims of domestic violence and sexual assault and includes a range of services: victim advocacy including legal/medical, TTY hotline, crisis intervention, case management, information and referral, follow-up, safe home placement and support groups. |
| Maria Droste Services of Colorado Inc | $19,950 | The Survivors Mental health Program provides mental health services, including intake assessment, individual therapy, medication management and crisis intervention/case management services, to adult survivors of violence who have serious mental illness. |
| Project PAVE | $37,500 | Project PAVE provides early intervention counseling and advocacy for youth ages 5 to 18 who have witnessed or been victimized by relationship violence. |

VOCA 2008 Assistance Funding

| Agency Name | Recommended Funding | Description |
|---|---------------------|---|
| Project Safeguard | $62,630 | Project Safeguard's Legal Advocacy program provides emergency intervention and support services to women experiencing domestic violence. We maintain offices in the 1st, 2nd, 17th and 18th Judicial districts but are available to provide services for victims throughout the state. Advocates assist clients in developing safety plans, identifying the appropriate avenue to acquire protection through the courts without benefit of an attorney, ensure that the client has the proper forms required by the court and an opportunity to attend protection order preparation clinics. Advocates typically accompany victims during the court process, identify other appropriate community service agencies, make referrals and coordinate with system based agencies to support the needs of the victim. All services are available in English and Spanish. |
| Rape Assistance and Awareness Program(RAAP) | $82,709 | The Rape Assistance and Awareness Program (RAAP) is the only rape crisis center serving the Metro-Denver area. The RAAP Victim Services Program provides counseling services (assessment, individual and group) to meet the specific needs of victims of sexual violence. |
| Rocky Mountain Children's Law Center | $64,938 | The Rocky Mountain Children's Law Center, through the Pro Bono Attorney Project, recruits, trains, and supervises volunteer lawyers to represent at risk children who are involved in domestic violence proceedings in the Denver County Protective Orders Court. The Project supports a crisis hotline which responds to approximately 2,000 calls each year from parents, grandparents, foster parents, attorneys, judges, and others seeking legal information, referrals, and services for child victims of abuse, neglect, and other crimes. Volunteer lawyers provide legal representation in the most egregious cases. |
| SafeHouse Denver, Inc. | $77,424 | SafeHouse Denver assists women, children and youth in reclaiming their right to a life free of domestic violence. Three SafeHouse Denver advocates provide bilingual (English/Spanish) direct advocacy, crisis intervention, and one-to-one and group counseling to women, children and youth who have been impacted by domestic violence. The program serves between 1,400 to 1,500 women and children a year. |
| Servicios de La Raza, Inc. | $32,659 | The Domestic Violence Victim's Program at Servicios de La Raza provides services for victims of domestic violence in a variety of ways. Our services include a 24-hour crisis line, ongoing bilingual counseling, advocacy, education, and referral services for Spanish and English speaking adults. |
| Curtis Park Community Center | $18,216 | The Curtis Park Community Center advocates provide crisis intervention, information and referral, follow-up and case management to underserved crime victims within the Northeast Denver and Muslim community. These community advocates provide a trusted link between their communities and the Victim Services Network by utilizing not only the Network but also resources within their own communities. |
| Advocates Against Domestic Assault | $69,086 | The project will provide direct victim services to victims of domestic abuse and sexual assault in Las Animas and Huerfano counties. |
| District Attorney's Office, 3rd Jud. Dist. | $37,556 | The District Attorney's Office will provide a comprehensive mandated safety class for victims of domestic violence prior to modification of a restraining order or protection order. These services would provide victims with continued support through the judicial process. Community outreach will ensure that underserved areas/populations would be informed. |
| CASA of the Pikes Peak Region, Inc. | $11,322 | CASA of the Pikes Peak Region will to provide well-trained volunteers to advocate for safe and permanent homes for children who are victims of sexual abuse, domestic violence, or physical abuse. |
| Centro de la Familia | $40,964 | Centro de la Familia provides bilingual, culturally competent services to child and adult crime victims who are Spanish Speaking and/or recent immigrants of Hispanic and Latino origin. In addition to mental health services, Centro offers victims' advocacy; a 24-hour crisis line; court support and preparation of restraining orders; translation of informational, legal and clinical documents; assistance with applications for victim's compensation, transportation for critical appointments, emergency financial assistance and resource and information referrals for basic needs. |

VOCA 2008 Assistance Funding

| Agency Name | Recommended Funding | Description |
|--|---------------------|---|
| Children's Advocacy Center, Inc. | $33,075 | The Children's Advocacy Center/Pikes Peak Region Victim Support Program provides immediate crisis support and extended outreach and support to child victims and witnesses and the non-offending parents of child sexual abuse/assault, domestic violence, and physical abuse. The Family Support Advocates provide emotional support, system education, community referrals, educational support groups, and court preparation for these families throughout the process of the forensic interview, continued investigation and prosecution of sexual abuse. |
| El Paso County, Sheriff's Office | $50,691 | The El Paso County Sheriff's Office Victim Assistance Program will an advocate and volunteer staff to ensure 24/7 on-call victim advocacy crisis intervention services within the jurisdiction of the El Paso County Sheriff's Office and the Fountain Police Department. |
| T.E.S.S.A. | $76,754 | The Safehouse provides emergency safe shelter for adult female victims of domestic violence and their children. It addresses victims' immediate therapeutic and non-therapeutic needs, and helps them attain enhanced safety and self-sufficiency through skill building, support, and education/training. The Children's Program provides therapeutic and non-therapeutic services to Safehouse children to help them deal with the effects of living in a violent home. It also provides developmentally-appropriate psychoeducational groups for community-based children living with domestic violence. |
| City of Colorado Springs Police Department | $54,916 | The Colorado Spring Police Department's Victim Advocacy Program provides services to victims of crimes within the City of Colorado Springs. These services are aligned with the Colorado Victim Rights Act and offer victim advocacy 24 hours a day for on-scene response and accompanying services including crisis intervention, information on victim rights and victim compensation and assistance in accessing community resources. |
| Advocates for Victims of Assault | $38,928 | Advocates for Victims of Assault provides 24-hour crisis intervention to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and trauma through the following services: 24-hour crisis line, personal victim advocacy, follow-up, emergency financial assistance, counseling, support groups, information, referral and emergency housing. We also provide legal advocacy and assistance with restraining orders, court appearances, support meetings with the District Attorney's Office and free legal clinics for clients. |
| Advocates of Lake County, Inc. | $41,000 | The Advocates of Lake County, Inc. provides bilingual/bicultural (English and Spanish) non-emergency and 24/7 emergency services to include crisis intervention, food and shelter, counseling, support, information, referral resources, advocacy relevant to the victim's circumstances (personal, criminal justice, legal, medical, other as necessary), and community awareness and education. Services are available to all victims of violence, including victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and dating violence. |
| District Attorney's Office, 5th Jud. Dist. | $22,464 | The Victim Resource Project provides comprehensive services to all crime victims in the 5th Judicial District. Assistance includes notification of victim rights, education and information about the criminal justice system and referrals and advocacy in the criminal justice system. Additionally, the project provides assistance with Crime Victim Compensation to all eligible victims. |
| The Resource Center of Eagle County, Inc. | $35,000 | The Advocates Against Assault operates our shelter, Freedom Ranch, for survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault and their children. This project provides advocacy, crisis intervention, shelter, safety planning, and follow-up support services to bring change and hope into the lives of these residential and non-residential victims. |
| Clear Creek County Advocates | $15,000 | Clear Creek County Advocates provides crisis intervention and support services to victims of violence and their families. Victim advocates offer crisis intervention, follow-up support, information, referrals and emergency food and shelter. CCCA also provides support groups for victims and survivors of domestic violence and for children from violent homes. |
| Alternative Horizons, Inc. | $32,019 | Alternative Horizons provides a 24-Hour hotline, crisis intervention, followup peer counseling, criminal justice and personal advocacy, information and referral services; support/therapy groups and individual sessions, as needed; court advocacy; legal representation in divorce/child custody cases. Services are available to victim/survivors of domestic violence in both English and Spanish. |

VOCA 2008 Assistance Funding

| Agency Name | Recommended Funding | Description |
|---|---------------------|---|
| Archuleta County Victim Assistance Program | $25,528 | Archuleta County Victim Assistance Program provides 24-hour crisis intervention, advocacy and support services to victims of violent crime, mainly domestic violence and sexual assault. Direct services to victims include immediate on-scene intervention to assist with safety, emergency housing, clothing, food & transportation; court advocacy to guide victims through the criminal and civil court processes; personal advocacy assistance with resource agencies, employers and landlords; referrals for long-term needs including financial, housing and security. |
| Rape Intervention Team, Inc. | $37,223 | The Rape Intervention Team provides comprehensive non-systems advocate services to victims of sexual assault in the 6th Judicial District including 24-hour crisis intervention, advocacy, support, and counseling for sexual assault survivors and their family and friends. |
| Volunteers of America | $57,856 | Volunteers of America provides comprehensive residential domestic violence shelter for women and children, serving the entire southwest region of the state. |
| City of Montrose, Police Department | $12,716 | The City of Montrose Police Department is a law enforcement based victim services program that provides on-scene and followup services by one Victim Advocate and one trained volunteer 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. |
| District Attorney's Office, 7th Jud. Dist. | $68,880 | The District Attorney's Office will provide a Victims Assistance Technician and Victims Assistance Technician/Translator to give assistance to all victims of crimes in the areas of victim impact statements, court-room advocacy, crime victim compensation application/process assistance, and general victim assistance and support. Services are for all victims, including monolingual Spanish victims and victims that live in isolated areas. |
| Gunnison County, Sheriff's Department | $23,014 | Gunnison County Sheriff's Department provides direct services to victims of crime reporting to the four law enforcement agencies in the Gunnison County Jurisdiction of the 7th Judicial District. |
| Jubilee House of Gunnison County, Inc. | $29,250 | Jubilee House is a community-based victim services agency for the local and rural communities of Gunnison and Hinsdale counties including Crested Butte, Mt. Crested Butte, Gunnison, and Lake City. Jubilee House provides direct service through crisis counseling, follow-up, therapy, group treatment/support, safehouse, information/referral, criminal justice support/advocacy, emergency financial assistance, emergency legal advocacy, victim compensation assistance, personal advocacy, emergency transportation, and safety planning, to all victims of violent crime including domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, elder abuse, and hate/bias crimes. |
| San Miguel Resource Center | $45,560 | The San Miguel Resource Center is a nonprofit, victim services organization serving San Miguel and the West End of Montrose Counties. Staff and volunteer advocates provide immediate crisis intervention and ongoing advocacy services to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. This project also provides volunteer advocate trainings and a 24-hour crisis hotline system. |
| City of Delta, Police Department | $13,788 | Delta Police Department's Victim Advocate Program provides trained coordinator, volunteers, and officers who ensure the rights of crime victims in Delta. |
| CASA of the Seventh Judicial District, Inc. | $21,439 | CASA of the Seventh JD provides trained volunteers who advocate for safe and permanent homes for children who are victims of sexual abuse, physical abuse, child abuse, or domestic violence and involved in the court system. |
| 7 th JD Child Advocacy Center | $28,557 | The Dolphin House Project provides direct services to victims of child abuse and their non-offending family members to facilitate their healing process. Child abuse victims will include those children who have been physically or sexually abused and witnesses to violent crimes. |
| Alternatives to Violence, Inc. | $34,000 | Alternatives to Violence provides crisis intervention, individual and group counseling, transitional housing, legal and court advocacy, and information and referrals to all victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and other violent crimes in Larimer County. |
| ChildSafe Research and Treatment Foundation | $15,416 | ChildSafe is the sole comprehensive treatment program for child sexual abuse victims and their families in Larimer County. Two Clinical Directors oversee the coordination of quality services, take referrals, assign cases to therapists and supervise quality services. |

VOCA 2008 Assistance Funding

| Agency Name | Recommended Funding | Description |
|---|---------------------|--|
| Crossroads Safehouse | $60,338 | Crossroads Safehouse Victim Services provides immediate safe shelter, emotional support, legal advocacy, community outreach, and educational programs to victims of domestic violence in Larimer County. |
| District Attorney's Office, 8th Jud. Dist. | $53,492 | The District Attorney's Office in the 8th Judicial District provides a Victim/Witness Specialist who will ensure that victims receive their constitutionally mandated rights to services by providing victims with information, support and referral and the opportunity to provide case input to the District Attorney's Office. |
| Estes Valley Victim Advocates, Inc. | $6,395 | Estes Valley Victim Advocates is the only agency in the Estes Valley that serves victims of crime. The agency provides in-person 24/7 emergency intervention advocacy, individual counseling and support groups for victims of crime. |
| Larimer County Child Advocacy Center, Inc. | $45,208 | The Larimer County Child Advocacy Center provides direct victim services to child abuse victims and their non-offending family members in English and in Spanish. They provide a child-friendly environment for interviews, refer victims for treatment, and coordinate a multidisciplinary response to child abuse in Larimer County. |
| Larimer County, Sheriff's Department | $24,082 | The Victim Response Team at the Larimer County Sheriff's Office trains coordinators and advocates who assure that all victims are contacted and informed of their rights and available resources. Coordinators also attend court with victims or on their behalf. |
| Lutheran Family Services of Northern Colorado | $33,200 | Approximately 90% of children placed in Lutheran Family Services' foster homes have been victims of physical abuse or sexual abuse or have been exposed to serious drug/alcohol abuse situations in their birth families. Licensed clinical social workers and supervised clinicians provide assessments and treatment plans that include individual therapy, participation in group therapy and support and guidance to foster parents as needed. |
| SAVA Center | $62,788 | The Sexual Assault Victim Advocate (SAVA) Center is the only victim service program in Larimer county that exclusively serves people victimized by sexual violence. We provide Larimer County residents with the only 24-hour hotline, advocacy, crisis intervention and counseling services dedicated exclusively to the needs of sexual assault survivors. |
| Advocate/Safehouse Project | $38,783 | The Advocate/Safehouse Project provides 24-hour crisis intervention and advocacy for victims of domestic violence and sexual assault through volunteer coordination and direct client services. |
| District Attorney's Office, 9th Jud. Dist. | $33,890 | The Domestic Violence Project for the 9th Judicial District guides domestic violence victims through the criminal justice process, provides community education and outreach to raise awareness about domestic violence, and coordinates with the other community agencies to develop integrated response for domestic violence victims. |
| Garfield County, Sheriff's Office | $40,358 | The Garfield County Sheriff's Office Victim Assistance Program provides victims of crime and crisis in the Garfield County Jurisdictional area with on scene crisis intervention to reduce trauma. Assistance to victims includes referrals to local or State agencies, assistance for those with language/educational barriers to fill out Victims Compensation Application forms or other forms, provision of Victims Rights Amendment information, accompaniment to advisement, bond or court appearances, and assistance to monolingual Spanish victims with interpretation as needed in relationship to the crime and victim needs. |
| Alpine Legal Services, Inc. | $19,000 | Alpine Legal Services will provide comprehensive legal assistance to victims of crime in Garfield, Pitkin and western Eagle Counties. This includes assisting victims of domestic violence with obtaining protective orders and other emergency orders. |
| YouthZone | $15,000 | YouthZone will identify and provide direct intensive therapeutic intervention services for adolescent victims and their families, including case management. |
| RESPONSE, Inc. | $32,290 | RESPONSE assists Spanish speaking survivors of domestic violence or sexual assault and provides training for volunteer advocates. |
| Childhelp | $24,780 | The River Bridge Childhelp Center will partner with Valley View Hospital and the District Attorney's Office to provide efficient investigational resources to advocate for the safety and emotional needs of severely physically and sexually abused children in the Glenwood Springs area. |
| CASA of Pueblo | $15,257 | CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of Pueblo is a private non-profit organization that recruits, screens, and trains community volunteers to be appointed to advocate for abused and neglected children in court. |

VOCA 2008 Assistance Funding

| Agency Name | Recommended Funding | Description |
|---|---------------------|---|
| District Attorney's Office, 10th Jud. Dist. | $29,106 | The District Attorney in the 10th Judicial District provides a Victims Assistant Specialist who supports the Juvenile Court Unit and the Crimes Against People Unit. The Victims Assistant Specialist serves children and adults who are victims of juveniles who commit crimes or juveniles who are the victims of crime, such as physical and sexual assault, rape, felony domestic violence, child abuse and homicide. |
| Pueblo Child Advocacy Center | $15,600 | The Pueblo Child Advocacy Center provides direct services to child victims of abuse and their non-offending family members to assist them through the investigative, judicial and healing process. |
| Pueblo County Sheriff's Office | $67,493 | The ACOVA Program, in cooperation with law enforcement agencies, provides trained volunteer victim advocates who are available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year to respond to crisis situations due to crime or circumstance. Responding Advocates provide emotional support, information regarding the victims' rights and/or the criminal justice system. |
| Pueblo Rape Crisis Services, Inc. | $28,950 | Pueblo Rape Crisis Services is a community based rape crisis center that provides "around the clock" services to sexual assault victims within the Pueblo community. Staff and volunteer victim advocates respond to emergency sexual assault calls at hospital emergency rooms as part of Pueblo's Sexual Assault Response Team and operate a 24-hour crisis line. Rape Crisis offers confidential victim advocacy, crisis intervention, emotional support, referrals to other agencies, information about victim rights and victim compensation, follow-up services and crisis line assistance. |
| YWCA of Pueblo | $58,674 | YWCA provides individual and group counseling, crisis intervention, legal advocacy, information and referral, crisis hotline counseling, and shelter to women and their children who are victims of domestic violence. |
| Alliance Against Domestic Abuse | $25,455 | The Alliance Against Domestic Abuse provides services for victims of domestic violence and sexual assault at no cost to the individual. Services include peer counseling, support groups for women and children, 24-hour crisis intervention, emergency financial assistance, assistance with obtaining restraining orders, victims compensation, victims rights information, court and personal advocacy. |
| Chaffee County L.E. Victims Assistance Unit | $23,903 | The Chaffee County Law Enforcement Victims Assistance Unit provides support for crime victims in Chaffee County. Trained advocates provide immediate crisis intervention, referrals for victims compensation, referrals to assisting agencies, information regarding law enforcement and the judicial process, and follow-up support. |
| District Attorney's Office, 11th Jud. Dist. | $23,101 | The District Attorney's Office, 11th Judicial District provides direct services to all victims of crime including notification and education about victim rights, emotional support, personal advocacy, crisis counseling, accompaniment of victims to court hearings or as a victim representative, victim liaison with prosecutors, information and referral to appropriate community agencies, assessment of needs, referral to and assistance in applying for Victim Compensation, coordination of victims impact and restitution statements, and emergency assistance. |
| Family Crisis Services, Inc. | $29,044 | Family Crisis Services provides peer counseling, shelter, 24-hour hotline, group support, emergency legal advocacy, court support & advocacy, referrals and crisis counseling for sexually abused and domestic violence victims in the 11 th Judicial District. |
| Fremont County, Sheriff's Department | $24,023 | Fremont County, Sheriff's Department provides crisis intervention, victim rights information, victim compensation info/forms, and agency referrals. It ensures that domestic violence protection orders are given to victim in a timely manner, and victim notification is in place in the jail for all offenders arrested by the 4 law enforcement agencies in the county. |
| Park County Crisis Center | $27,235 | The Park County Crisis Center operates the only area emergency shelter for women and children who are victims of crime, primarily domestic violence and sexual assault. It serves rural Park County, mountain Jefferson County and surrounding mountain communities. Our 24 hour crisis hotline provides crisis counseling, safety planning, resources and referrals. |
| Park County, Sheriff's Department | $29,347 | The Park County Sheriff's Department Victim Services Program provides crisis intervention and follow-up services to victims of crime in Park County. They strive to offer uniform services for the rurally isolated victims of crime. |

VOCA 2008 Assistance Funding

| Agency Name | Recommended Funding | Description |
|---|---------------------|---|
| Alamosa County, Sheriff's Department | $90,918 | The San Luis Valley Victim Response Unit provides immediate crisis intervention and community referrals to the crime victims in the municipalities and counties of Alamosa, Conejos, Costilla, and Rio Grande. |
| District Attorney's Office, 12th Jud. Dist. | $40,754 | The District Attorney's Office in the 12th Judicial District provides information, support and assistance to victims of violent crime and to advocate for them as their case is being prosecuted. |
| San Luis Valley Comprehensive Comm. Mental Health | $24,324 | Alternatives to Violence will provide advocacy and community safety for victims of domestic abuse and their children, including treatment groups for children. |
| Tu Casa, Inc. | $44,150 | Tu Casa's programs will provide the 12th Judicial District in the San Luis Valley domestic violence and sexual assault victims and their families with 24 hour crisis intervention, advocacy, support and counseling while networking, cooperating, coordinating, and collaborating with other agencies to address child abuse and our under-served victim populations. All direct services are offered in English and Spanish. |
| District Attorney's Office, 13th Jud. Dist. | $64,770 | The District Attorney's Office in the 13th Judicial District will provide victim advocates to notify victims of the critical stages of the Criminal Justice system, mail Victim Impact statements, provide follow-up services, provide sentencing information, work as a liaison between victims and prosecutors, prepare restitution motions to the court, mail post-notification information, assist with preparation of witness testimony, and provide courtroom advocacy. |
| Help for Abused Partners | $16,241 | Help for Abused Partners provides 24 hour crisis intervention, shelter, food and other basic needs, counseling, court advocacy (criminal and civil), support groups, and transportation to any victim of domestic violence and their children. |
| High Plains Sexual Assault Center | $37,807 | The High Plains Sexual Assault Center provides programs and services to aid victim/survivors of sexual assault to enable recovery. They provide direct services to rural, underserved victims of sexual assault, including courtroom and personal advocacy, victim notification, victim compensation, coordination of individual therapy for victims with no other means of financial support. |
| Kit Carson County, Sheriff's Department | $27,621 | The Kit Carson County Victim Assistance Program provides direct services to victims of crime by working with all local law enforcement agencies, judiciary, compensation programs and service providers. Victim Advocates assist victims by responding immediately to on-scene crisis, in completing compensation applications, therapy referrals, follow-up phone calls, in-person contacts and courtroom advocacy. This program serves all primary and secondary victims from the initial crime throughout the judicial system. |
| Logan County, Sheriff's Department | $24,847 | The Logan County Victim Assistance Program provides assistance within 24 hours after a crime has been reported for victims and their families through both personal and courtroom advocacy, including Spanish-speaking advocacy services for crime victims. |
| Morgan County, Sheriff's Department | $24,430 | The Morgan County Victim Assistance Program (MCVAP) is a volunteer based program which provides 24 hour crisis intervention and follow-up services to victims of crime from the time the crime is reported through the prosecution of the case. MCVAP provides trainings for victim advocates and law enforcement personnel in order to ensure victims' rights, and improve services to victims of crime. |
| Phillips County, Sheriff's Office | $18,939 | Phillips County, Sheriff's Office provides victims services to victims of crime in Phillips and Sedgwick Counties. |
| S.H.A.R.E., Inc. | $36,456 | S.H.A.R.E., Inc., located in Morgan County, is a shelter and outreach program for victims of domestic violence. Our program provides 24-hour crisis intervention, on-going individual advocacy, shelter for up to six weeks, transportation, court advocacy, support groups in English and Spanish, children and youth programs, emergency financial assistance, and assistance with victim compensation, protection orders, and safety planning. |

VOCA 2008 Assistance Funding

| Agency Name | Recommended Funding | Description |
|---|---------------------|--|
| Washington County, Sheriff's Office | $14,227 | The Victim Advocacy Program within the Washington County Sheriff's Office provides direct services to victims of crime. |
| Yuma County, Sheriff's Office | $21,504 | The Yuma County Victim Assistance Program is a 24 hour on-call service for all law enforcement agencies within Yuma County. Victim Advocates will respond to the victim's location when requested by law enforcement officers. The advocate will assist all victims under the Victims Rights Amendment within 24 hours of the call with completion of victim compensation forms, therapist referrals, follow-up phone calls, personal contacts, and meeting scheduling with the District Attorney's Office. |
| SARA, Inc. (Sexual Assault Response Advocate) | $34,928 | SARA, Inc. provides outreach to victims of sexual violence in Morgan County including 24-hour crisis intervention, individual advocacy, court advocacy/education, support groups, youth programs, assistance with victim compensation and referral to community resources. |
| Advocates - Crisis Support Services | $54,098 | Advocates - Crisis Support Services is a non-profit organization that provides 24-hour/day crisis services to victims of crime in Moffat County. Programs include, domestic abuse, sexual assault, and a multi-jurisdictional crim victim assistance program for local law enforcement. |
| Advocates Against Battering & Abuse | $27,127 | The Advocates Against Battering & Abuse will provide direct services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault in Routt and Jackson Counties. Recruitment, training and supervision of volunteer advocates will be facilitated to assist 24-hour direct service provision. |
| ADVOCATES: Victims Assistance Team | $23,238 | ADVOCATES is the only organization in Grand County that provides comprehensive services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. We provide a 24-hour confidential crisis line, temporary safe-housing, emergency support services, court advocacy, assistance in filing restraining orders, counseling for victims who are ineligible for victim's compensation, information and referrals to relevant community resources, assistance in accessing affordable legal services, and any other services that will help to meet the needs of crime victims. |
| District Attorney's Office, 15th Jud. Dist. | $14,000 | The District Attorney Victim Services program provides VRA-mandated services to victims of crimes, from filing of charges through disposition and post-sentencing hearings. |
| Domestic Safety Resource Center | $52,393 | Domestic Safety Resource Center provides emergency shelter; emergency transportation and food; counseling; criminal justice advocacy and referrals to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault and their children. They have established satellite offices in the outlying counties of the 15th Judicial District (Baca, Cheyenne, Kiowa and Prowers Counties) to better serve victims. |
| Arkansas Valley Resource Center | $98,790 | Arkansas Valley Resource Center provides crisis hotline, safety, counseling, advocacy, information/referrals, victims compensation assistance, on scene crisis intervention and other advocacy services for victims of domestic violence, their children and all other victims of violent crime in Bent, Otero, and Crowley Counties. |
| Crowley County, Sheriff's Department | $15,000 | Crowley County, Sheriff's Department provides support and followup on all victims under the victims of crime 24/7. To insure that all victims are informed of their rights, and provide information on victims compensation rights and support agencies. |
| District Attorney's Office, 16th Jud. Dist. | $28,763 | The Victim Advocate in the District Attorney's Office of the 16th Judicial District provides immediate information and crisis intervention services to victims of crime pursuant to Colorado law. The Victim Advocate insures that there is continuous communication with victims to keep them informed of upcoming critical stages of the case as it proceeds through the legal system. |
| Alternatives to Family Violence | $70,062 | Alternatives to Family Violence, Inc. provides: Safehouse services, crisis intervention and counseling to children who have witnessed or are impacted by domestic violence; Safehouse services, crisis intervention, advocacy and counseling to monolingual Spanish speaking and English speaking victims of domestic violence. |

VOCA 2008 Assistance Funding

| Agency Name | Recommended Funding | Description |
|---|---------------------|--|
| City of Thornton | $37,694 | The Cities of Thornton and Northglenn provide comprehensive services to victims and witnesses of crime including Spanish bilingual/bicultural victim support. They assist victims and witnesses at the time of the initial crisis and on-going case management to victims. |
| District Attorney's Office, 17th Jud. Dist. | $53,880 | Victim Advocates in the District Attorney's Office, 17th Judicial District, county court division will provide direct services to child victims of abuse, sexual assault and domestic violence. |
| CASA of Adams and Broomfield Counties | $15,500 | CASA of Adams and Broomfield Counties is a nonprofit organization that provides specifically selected and trained community volunteers, CASAs, to advocate for abused and neglected children in the pursuit of safe, permanent homes in the 17th Judicial District (Adams and Broomfield counties) especially to child victims of physical and sexual abuse. |
| Muslim Family Services | $19,038 | Muslim Family Services provides advocacy to crime victims from within the Muslim community. |
| Advocates for Children | $19,250 | Advocates for Children volunteers provide direct services to child victims of sexual assault and physical abuse in the 18th Judicial District Court system through trained volunteers. |
| Children's Advocacy & Family Resource, Inc. | $40,270 | The Sungate Case Management Program provides crisis intervention and ongoing support to child victims of abuse and their non-offending family members from the 18th Judicial District who are brought to Children's Advocacy & Family Resources, Inc./Sungate for services. |
| District Attorney's Office, 18th Jud. Dist. | $24,565 | The District Attorney's Office, 18th Judicial District, Special Victims Unit (SVU) comprised of specially trained attorneys and victim advocates, provides services to our most vulnerable victims. This specialized unit is responsible for child sexual assault, child physical abuse resulting in serious injury or death and felony cases involving elderly or others considered "at risk". SVU Victim Advocates maintain close contact with victims and family members to provide the support, advocacy, information and referral services necessary to minimize the potential negative impacts that may result not only from victimization, but also from participation in the criminal justice process. |
| Douglas County, Sheriff's Department | $40,000 | The Douglas County Sheriff's Department Victim Advocate will provide crisis intervention services to victims of crimes, ensure compliance with all law enforcement Victim Rights requirements, and provide support, referrals, and follow-up services to victims of crimes in Douglas County. |
| Gateway Battered Women's Shelter | $56,178 | Gateway Battered Women's Services Court Advocacy Program provides services to domestic violence victims subpoenaed to the Aurora Municipal Court following an arrest of the perpetrator. Services provided include: crisis intervention, counseling, information on court proceedings and victim rights, restraining orders and victim comeensation claims, safety planning, court accompaniment, and follow-up services. |
| Women's Crisis & Family Outreach Center | $83,200 | In the Counseling Program, certified counselors and therapists provide education, information, support, resources and other tools necessary to break the cycle of violence and transform lives. Counseling is provided in a residential and non-residential setting. In the Legal Advocate Program, professionals offer support and information including civic restraining orders assistance, court support and other legal referrals. |
| A Kid's Place Inc. | $35,232 | A Kid's Place provides services to child victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, or who have witnessed domestic violence in Weld County through a Child Advocacy Center and CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) program. |
| A Woman's Place, Inc. | $39,281 | A Woman's Place provides individual and group counseling, safety plans, crisis intervention, legal and personal advocacy, information and referral, 24-hour crisis line and follow-up services to women and children who are victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and child abuse in North Adams and Weld counties, including outreach to the migrant worker populations provided since April of 1997. |
| Greeley Police Department | $47,599 | A law enforcement based program providing direct services to child and adult victims of violent crime and sudden trauma in the 19th Judicial District communities of Greeley, Evans, LaSalle, Kersey, Windsor, Eaton, Ault, Milliken, and Johnston. Immediate crisis intervention, referrals, information, criminal justice support, and follow-up advocacy is provided to English and non-English speaking victims of crime. |

VOCA 2008 Assistance Funding

| Agency Name | Recommended Funding | Description |
|---|---------------------|---|
| District Attorney's Office, 19th Jud. Dist. | $35,418 | The Victim Witness Program is a prosecution-based project, serving all of Weld County providing direct services to adult and child victims of domestic violence, victims of child sexual abuse, adult sexual assault victims, and underserved victim populations including elderly victims, Spanish-speaking victims, and at-risk adult victims. The Domestic Violence Fast Track Program in the district Attorney's Office provides next day contact with victims, referrals, Victims' Rights and Criminal Justice system information. |
| Sexual Assault Survivors, Inc. | $44,252 | Sexual Assault Survivors provides hotline crisis response services, in-person crisis response, information, referrals and various other direct victim services for persons victimized by sexual assault, sexual harassment, and stalking. Spoken and printed information is available in English and Spanish languages. |
| Blue Sky Bridge | $39,070 | Blue Sky Bridge facilitates a collaborative approach to child sexual abuse investigations in Boulder county while providing child victims and their families with support and services in a safe, compassionate environment, and to provide outreach and culturally competent services to underrepresented and underserved populations. |
| Safehouse Progressive Alliance for Nonviolenc | $53,299 | The Tri-City Outreach Project provides immediate and ongoing assistance for adult and child victims of domestic violence who reside in the eastern Boulder County towns of Lafayette, Louisville, Erie, Superior, and the rural surrounding area, as well as residents of western Broomfield County. Services include emergency response, access to safe shelter, legal advocacy, and individual and group support counseling for English and Spanish-speaking adult and child victims. |
| Boulder County, Sheriff's Department | $54,994 | The Multi-Agency Victim Outreach Program uses police reports to identify crime victims and survivors who did not receive on-scene advocacy. Once identified, a trained volunteer contacts the victim in person or by telephone and provides services in the form of support, counseling, referrals, victim rights information, victim compensation referral, and criminal justice information and/or referral. |
| MESA (Moving to End Sexual Assault) | $70,328 | MESA will provide comprehensive victim services for English and Spanish-speaking adult sexual assault survivors and their families and friends, including a 24-hour hotline, crisis intervention, advocacy, counseling, information, referrals, individual and group therapy sessions, case management, and assistance to victims throughout the criminal justice process. |
| Safe Shelter of St. Vrain Valley | $32,454 | Safe Shelter of St. Vrain Valley's Victim Intervention Project provides an immediate and effective response to the emergency needs of domestic violence victims and their children. Safe Shelter is the only provider of domestic violence victim services in North and Northeast Boulder County. The project focuses on 24-hour crisis intervention, support services, legal advocacy and the direct service volunteer program. Program services are provided in both English and Spanish. |
| Voices for Children | $18,665 | CASA volunteers provide direct services to and advocacy for victims of child abuse and neglect to provide mentoring, and create a relationship with the children in order to assess best interests and service provision. Requests for CASAs are made by guardian ad litem attorneys who are on contract to the 20th Judicial District. The program manager and two case managers coordinate case assignment. Each CASA is appointed by the Court to a specific case, with the focus being on the best interests of the child. |
| Hilltop Community Resources, Inc. | $102,860 | Hilltop operates domestic violence and sexual assault programs including shelter, advocacy, individual and group counseling and 24-hour crisis lines in Mesa, Montrose, Delta and Ouray counties. The Latimer House Counseling & Advocacy Center provides comprehensive, direct services for victims of domestic violence and sexual assault in Mesa County. Operating in Montrose, Delta, and Ouray counties, Tri-County Resource Center offers comprehensive services for victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. |
| Mesa Youth Services dba Mesa County Partners | $10,300 | The Partners Mentoring Program recruits, trains, screens and supervises adult volunteers who are paired in year long one-to-one partnerships with youth who are crime victims. Children 6 to 17 years of age who are victims of abuse are referred to Partners by the Dept. of Human Services, DA's Office, Hilltop's Domestic Violence Project, School Counselors and therapists for on-to-one mentoring support. |

VOCA 2008 Assistance Funding

| Agency Name | Recommended Funding | Description |
|---|-----------------------|---|
| Western Slope Center for Children | $38,114 | The Western Slope Center for Children provides collaborative services to child sexual abuse victims and their non-offending family members in a supportive environment that reduces trauma and promotes dignity, justice and healing. The Center coordinates and facilitates the work of law enforcement, child protection investigators, district attorneys, mental health and medical providers during and following the investigation and prosecution of cases of child sexual abuse, severe physical abuse and children as witnesses to violence. |
| City of Cortez, Police Department | $40,032 | The Cortez Police Department Law Enforcement Victim Response Unit provides direct assistance to victims of crime at the scene or as soon as possible after the crime. |
| District Attorney's Office, 22nd Jud. Dist. | $33,606 | The District Attorney's Office in the 22nd Judicial District provides direct services to victims of crime through an effective Victim Notification Program by notifying victims of violent crime of all critical stages of the criminal justice process. We administer a Courtroom Advocacy Program by providing physical and emotional support to victims during Court Hearings and throughout the progress of the case, and assist victims to access Victim Compensation funds, determine restitution and prepare Restitution Orders to help them recover any monetary losses resulting from their victimization. |
| Four Corners Child Advocacy Center, Inc. | $65,744 | The Four Corners Child Advocacy Center is the only child abuse victim service facility in the southwestern area of Colorado. The services and programs provided by the Center assist both primary and secondary child victims; reduce trauma and promote healing. We service six surrounding counties and two tribes. We work in consort with Law Enforcement, Social Services, Mental health, the Criminal Justice system and physicians when indicated. Our Center coordinates services with those partners in order to provide a meeting environment that is child friendly, safe, and nurturing. |
| RENEW, Inc. | $43,454 | Renew, Inc. provides a 24-hour crises hotline, advocates and follow up services for adult victims and survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking in Montezuma and Dolores Counties (the 22nd Judicial District). |
| Ute Mountain Ute Tribe | $34,257 | This project will provide 24 hour on call services in assisting BIA Law Enforcement Services to include transportation, crisis intervention and support for victims of crime on the Ute Mountain Ute Reservation. The program provides traditional and contemporary services to all crime victims and works with Law Enforcement, Judicial Systems, and other agencies on and off the reservation. |
| TOTAL | $5,810,075.00 | |