HISTORY

In 1981, the Colorado General Assembly passed legislation creating the Crime Victim Compensation Program. The legislation (C.R.S. 24-4.1, Part 1) created a funding mechanism to assist crime victims with actual expenses incurred as a result of criminal acts that are not reimbursed by another source. The statute applies to compensable crimes committed after July 1, 1982.

The legislation also established victim compensation programs in each of Colorado's 22 judicial districts. Funding and service delivery are decentralized, i.e. each district is responsible for the administration, financial management, and decisions regarding its victim compensation funds.

The federal Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) of 1984 provided federal funding as well as state level responsibilities to the Crime Victim Compensation Program. Colorado has received federal funds to supplement the crime victim compensation program since 1985.

Federal crime victim compensation funds are administered by the Division of Criminal Justice, Colorado Department of Public Safety, and are passed through, or subgranted, to the local judicial district Victim Compensation Programs.

The Victims' Compensation and Assistance Coordinating Committee, a governor-appointed advisory board, is responsible for the development and enforcement of the Standards for the Administration of Crime Victim Compensation Programs. The Division of Criminal Justice is statutorily mandated to provide staff to support this effort. The first Standards were adopted in 1992 and were amended in 1998 and in 2004. The Review of Violations of the Standards for the Administration of Crime Victim Compensation and Victim Assistance and Law Enforcement Programs and Related Sanctions were adopted in 1994.

APPLYING FOR VICTIM COMPENSATION

Colorado's decentralized system establishes a separate program in each of the 22 judicial districts, and requires victims to file claims for compensation in the judicial district where the crime occurred.

Victims may receive a maximum amount of $20,000 for out-of-pocket expenses not covered by insurance or other collateral resources. Victim Compensation is the "payor of last resort;" therefore, programs require that victims apply for other sources of payment prior to receiving Victim Compensation funds.

Many programs are not able to award crime victim compensation up to the $20,000 statutory limit. This is due to the number of claims received by the program, as well as and the amount of revenue collected in the judicial district. Additional information can be obtained by contacting the administrators in the individual judicial districts.

COMPENSABLE LOSSES

Those eligible for victim compensation funds in the state of Colorado include any person victimized by violent crime in the state of Colorado, Colorado residents who are victimized in a state or country that does not have a victim compensation program, or residents who are victims of terrorism.

Compensable crimes include:

- Assault
- Child Abuse
- Robbery
- Arson
- Homicide
- DWI/DUI
- Terrorism
- Other violent crimes including some vehicular crimes
- Sexual Assault
- Stalking
- Kidnapping

Victims may receive up to $20,000 for out-of-pocket expenses not covered by insurance or other collateral resources; and/or, depending on the program, up to $1,000 for emergency awards. Losses directly related to the compensable crime are eligible for reimbursement, and may include:

- Medical and dental expenses;
- Mental health expenses;
- Economic support (lost wages; loss of support to dependents);
- Funeral/burial expenses;
- Repair or replacement of doors, locks and/or windows of residential property.

Additionally, applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Be the victim of an eligible crime, which occurred on or after July 1, 1982, that results in an out-of-pocket financial loss;
- Report the crime to law enforcement within 72 hours;
- Cooperate with law enforcement in the investigation and prosecution of the case;
- File for compensation within one year (within six months for eligible property crimes);
- Not substantially contribute to their victimization.

FUNDING

The Victim Compensation Program in Colorado's 22 judicial districts receive funding from fines and surcharges collected at both the state and federal level.

State victim compensation funds are collected from offenders who are convicted of, or receive a deferred sentence for, crimes classified as follows:

Felony	$125.00
Misdemeanor	$ 60.00
Class 1 Misdemeanor Traffic Offenses	$ 35.00
Class 2 Misdemeanor Traffic Offenses	$ 25.00

Federal victim compensation funds are collected from federal criminal fines and penalties and awarded to the states by the U.S. Department of Justice, Office for Victims of Crime. States may apply for federal funds each year. Award amounts equal 60 percent of the total amount of funds paid to victims from state victim compensation funds in the previous federal fiscal year. The Division of Criminal Justice administers these federal funds by subgranting them to the individual judicial districts based on need and spending patterns.

RESTITUTION

Upon sentencing, the court may order the defendant to pay restitution to the victim. Restitution is based on monetary losses suffered by the victim as a result of the crime.

Since a case must reach a final disposition for the court to order restitution, victims may not be awarded restitution for a year or more. Victim Compensation Programs are usually able to make an award to a crime victim within 45 days of receiving a completed application, helping victims meet their initial needs.

The Court may order an offender to repay the Victim Compensation fund for expenses paid to a victim or service provider, on behalf of the victim, out of the Victim Compensation fund. In effect, the offender is reimbursing the fund for some or all of the dollars awarded to the victim. This holds the offender accountable for his/her criminal actions.

OTHER SOURCES OF REVENUE

Each year judicial districts receive additional revenue to their victim compensation fund in the form of interest earned on the state dollars collected, refunds from collateral sources and donations to the fund. Additionally, some districts receive a portion of restitution payments made by defendants and not claimed by the intended recipient (unclaimed restitution).

* Administrative Funds: Pursuant to statute, the District Attorney and the Court Administrator may use no more than 12.5% (10% District Attorney, 2.5% Court Administrator) of new monies deposited into the victim compensation fund for administrative costs. In some instances, administrative funds are returned to the program portion of the fund for the benefit of victims.

This figure represents the administrative funds available pursuant to statute, and not the actual administrative costs for the program.

Supplemental federal Victim Compensation funds are provided to judicial districts based upon an actuarial calculation. This calculation takes into consideration 1) a district's fund balance, and 2) weighted expenditure patterns over previous years. Some federal funds are also provided to Victim Compensation programs for emergencies and/or fund balance shortfalls in order to stabilize the victim compensation funds, if necessary.

Not all districts need or apply for federal funds. As the table on this page indicates, eight of the districts utilized federal supplemental funds.

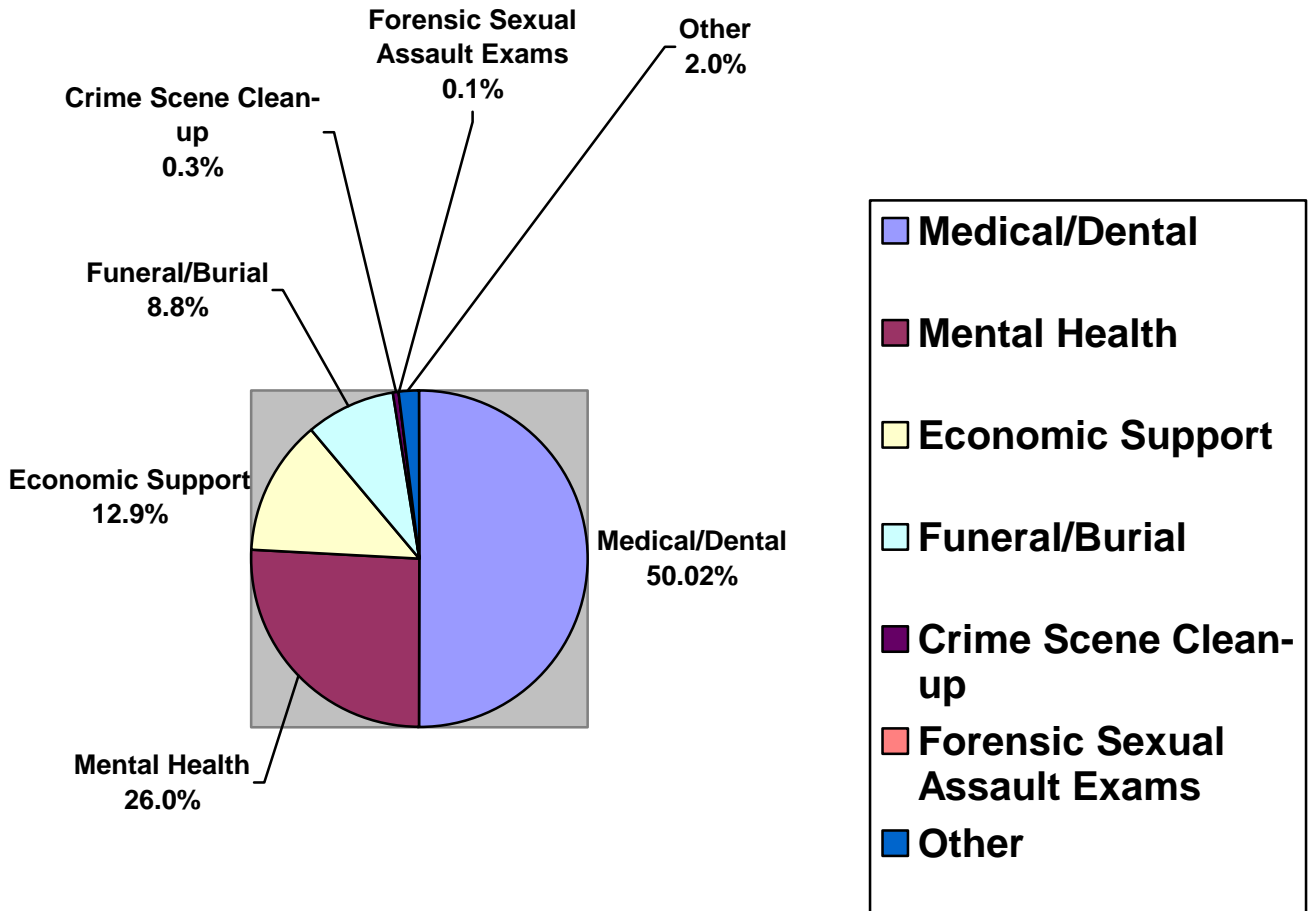

*The amount subgranted may not equal the dollars spent in the federal fiscal year, as monies may be carried over into the next fiscal year.
