HISTORY

In 1981, the Colorado General Assembly passed legislation creating the Crime Victim Compensation Program. The legislation (C.R.S. 24-4.1, Part 1) created a funding mechanism to assist crime victims with actual expenses incurred as a result of criminal acts that are not reimbursed by another source. The statute applies to compensable crimes committed after July 1, 1982.

The legislation also established victim compensation programs in each of Colorado's 22 judicial districts. Funding and service delivery are decentralized, therefore each district is responsible for the administration, financial management, and decisions regarding its victim compensation funds.

The federal Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) of 1984 provided federal funding as well as state level responsibilities to the Crime Victim Compensation Program. Colorado has received federal funds to supplement the state crime victim compensation program since 1985.

Federal crime victim compensation funds are administered by the Division of Criminal Justice, Colorado Department of Public Safety, and are passed through, or subgranted, to local judicial district Victim Compensation Programs.

The Victims' Compensation and Assistance Coordinating Committee, a governor-appointed advisory board, was responsible for the development and enforcement of the Standards for the Administration of Crime Victim Compensation Programs. The Division of Criminal Justice is statutorily mandated to provide staff to support this effort. The first Standards were adopted in 1992 and were amended in 1998 and in 2004. The Review of Violations of the Standards for the Administration of Crime Victim Compensation and Victim Assistance and Law Enforcement Programs and Related Sanctions were adopted in 1994.

In 2009, the Colorado General Assembly combined the Office for Victims Program's three victim services boards, including the Coordinating Committee, into one board, the Crime Victim Services Advisory Board (Advisory Board). The legislation creating the Advisory Board was signed by Governor Bill Ritter, Jr. on April 16, 2009 and went into effect on July 1, 2009. Pursuant to C.R.S. §24-4.1-117.3(3)(a), the Advisory Board is responsible for the development of, revisions to, compliance with, as well as imposing sanctions for, violations of the Standards.

APPLYING FOR VICTIM COMPENSATION

Colorado's decentralized system establishes a separate victim compensation program in each of the 22 judicial districts. Victims are required to file claims for compensation in the judicial district where the crime occurred.

Victims may receive a maximum amount of $20,000 for out-of-pocket expenses not covered by insurance or other collateral sources. Victim Compensation is the "payor of last resort;" therefore, programs require that victims apply for other sources of payment prior to receiving Victim Compensation funds.

Some programs are not able to provide crime victim compensation funds up to the $20,000 statutory limit. This is due to the number of claims received by the program, as well as the amount of revenue collected in the judicial district. Additional information can be obtained by contacting the administrators in the individual judicial districts.

COMPENSABLE LOSSES

Those eligible for victim compensation funds in the state of Colorado include any person victimized by violent crime in the state of Colorado, Colorado residents who are victimized in a state or country that does not have a victim compensation program, or residents of Colorado who are victims of terrorism.

Compensable crimes include:

- Assault
- Child Abuse
- Robbery
- Arson
- Homicide
- DWI/DUI
- Terrorism
- Other violent crimes including some vehicular crimes
- Sexual Assault
- Stalking
- Kidnapping

Victims may receive up to $20,000 for out-of-pocket expenses not covered by insurance or other collateral sources; and/or, depending on the individual program, up to $1,000 for emergency awards. Losses which are directly related to the compensable crime are eligible for reimbursement, and may include:

- Medical and dental expenses;
- Mental health expenses;
- Economic support (lost wages; loss of support to dependents);
- Funeral/burial expenses;
- Repair or replacement of doors, locks and/or windows of residential property.

Additionally, applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Have been the victim of an eligible crime, which occurred on or after July 1, 1982, that resulted in an out-of-pocket financial loss;
- Reported the crime to law enforcement within 72 hours;
- Cooperated with law enforcement in the investigation and prosecution of the case;
- Filed for compensation within one year (within six months for eligible property crimes);
- Not have substantially contributed to their victimization.

FUNDING

The Victim Compensation Programs in Colorado's 22 judicial districts receive funding from fines and surcharges collected at both the state and federal level. In 2007, the fee structure for state victim compensation funds collected pursuant to C.R.S. § 24-4.1-119 was revised by the passage of Senate Bill 07-55.

Effective July 1, 2007, state victim compensation funds collected from offenders who are convicted of, or receive a deferred sentence for, crimes and/or traffic offenses are classified as follows:

Felony	$163.00
Misdemeanor	$ 78.00
Class 1 Misdemeanor Traffic Offenses	$ 46.00
Class 2 Misdemeanor Traffic Offenses	$ 33.00
Class A or class B traffic infraction – as delineated in C.R.S. § 24-4.1-119 (f)(I) and C.R.S. § 42-4-1701 (4).

Federal victim compensation funds are collected from federal criminal fines and penalties and awarded to the states by the U.S. Department of Justice, Office for Victims of Crime. States may apply for federal funds on a yearly basis. The award amounts equal 60 percent of the total amount of funds paid to victims from state victim compensation funds in the previous federal fiscal year. The Division of Criminal Justice administers these federal funds by subgranting them to individual judicial districts based on their need and spending patterns.

RESTITUTION

Upon sentencing, the court may order the defendant to pay restitution to the victim. Restitution is based on monetary losses suffered by the victim as a result of the crime.

Since a case must reach a final disposition for the court to order restitution, victims may not be awarded restitution for a year or more. Victim Compensation Programs are usually able to make an award to a crime victim within 45 days of receiving a completed application, helping victims meet their initial needs.

The Court may order an offender to repay the Victim Compensation fund for expenses paid to a victim or service provider, on behalf of the victim, from the Victim Compensation fund. In effect, the offender is reimbursing the fund for some or all of the dollars awarded to the victim. This holds the offender accountable for his/her criminal actions.

OTHER SOURCES OF REVENUE

Each year judicial districts receive additional revenue to their victim compensation fund in the form of interest earned on the state dollars collected, refunds from collateral sources and donations to the fund. Additionally, some districts receive a portion of restitution payments made by defendants and not claimed by the intended recipient (unclaimed restitution).

AMERICAN RECOVERY AND REINVESTMENT ACT OF 2009

On February 17, 2009, President Obama signed the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. Included in this legislation were funds for Victim Compensation programs. The amount of program dollars available to Colorado Victim Compensation programs from the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 is $882,845.

Each Judicial District that is eligible for federal victim compensation funds receives an award based upon an actuarial calculation. This calculation takes into consideration 1) a district's fund balance, and 2) weighted expenditure patterns over previous years. Some federal funds are also provided to local programs for emergencies and/or fund balance shortfalls in order to stabilize the victim compensation funds in that community, if necessary. Not all districts need or apply for federal funds. As the table on this page indicates, nine of the districts utilized federal supplemental funds.

*The amount subgranted may not equal the dollars spent in the federal fiscal year, as monies may be carried over into the next fiscal year.

$340,000 of the total amount was awarded from the 09 Recovery Act funds.
