

Threat Assessment in Schools

Wednesday, May 14, 2014, 8:30-11:30 a.m.

Miller Middle School Auditorium, 2608 Junction St.
Durango, CO 81301

Check-in for those already registered begins at 8:00 a.m.
Continental breakfast will be provided.

No cost to Colorado participants.

Featuring: Dr. John Nicoletti

Dr. Nicoletti will analyze the latest school attacks discussing insider versus outsider threats and how schools can minimize vulnerabilities. Dr. Nicoletti will help school personnel differentiate between a student who makes a threat and a student who actually poses a threat with a discussion on the development of an avenger, behavioral coding options and how schools can initiate deterrents through a threat assessment process.

John Nicoletti, PhD, ABPP

received his Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology from Colorado State University in 1972. He has since established himself as a national expert in police psychology, violence risk assessment, workplace and school violence prevention, as well as crisis intervention and trauma recovery. Dr. Nicoletti has participated in several high profile investigations, including the Columbine High School and Virginia Tech shootings.

Registration is Required

Contact Kathy Morris, kmorris@sjboces.org, (970) 247-3261 x801

Presented by San Juan BOCES and the
Colorado School Safety Resource Center

Questions? Please contact the
Colorado School Safety Resource Center

(303) 239-4435 www.Colorado.gov/CSSRC

