

Pornography Resources

For Parents and Educators:

ItsTimeWeTalked.com

- How can you start “the porn talk”?
- A new normal is here.
- How can you respond if your child has seen porn?
- How parents can make a difference.

CommonSenseMedia.org (English and Español)

- Talking with Teens and Preteens About Pornography
- How to Block Pornography on your Child’s Devices
- What to do if Your Child Sees Pornography
- Talking with Teens and Preteens About Pornography

CultureReframed.org

- For Parents of Teens
- Parents Program (tips for talking with Adolescents)
- Sex Education and Pornography: An Annotated Bibliography

Cyberbullying.org

- Technology Use Contract
- Family Cell Phone Contract
- Internet Use Contract

For Youth:

AMAZE.org: provides young adolescents with medically accurate, age-appropriate, affirming, and honest sex education.

In Case You’re Curious (Planned Parenthood): Instagram account and textline answer sexual health questions from a trained educator.

Scarleteen.com: a progressive, independent sexuality and relationships education media and support organization and website.

WhatsOK.org: website and helpline that offers free, confidential support and resources to youth and young adults with concerns about their own or a friend’s sexual thoughts, feelings, and behaviors.